1. OBJECTIVES AND APPLICATION

These Regulations specify the regulations applicable for the conduct of the Hahn Australia Cup. These Regulations aim to promote the proper conduct and professional standards of the Hahn Australia Cup.

These Regulations form part of the Football Australia (FA) Statutes that specify the rules and regulations for the administration of the playing, participating, coaching and officiating in football within FA's jurisdiction.

1.1 Objectives

The objectives of these Regulations are to:

- (a) promote, develop and protect the Hahn Australia Cup by ensuring that the appropriate conduct and professional standards apply;
- (b) ensure that the Hahn Australia Cup is regulated in a consistent and co-ordinated manner across the states and territories; and
- (c) align the Hahn Australia Cup with FA Statutes and FIFA Statutes.

1.2 Application and Scope

These Regulations:

- (a) apply to FA and all Member Federations, District Associations, Clubs, Players and Officials participating in the Hahn Australia Cup (Hahn Australia Cup Participants);
- (b) apply to all Hahn Australia Cup Matches;
- (c) form part of the FA Statutes to which all Hahn Australia Cup Participants are bound;
- (d) do not limit or restrict the application of FIFA Statutes or FA Statutes, including without limitation, the National Code of Conduct and Ethics for conduct or behaviour of a Club, Player or Official; and
- (e) may be supplemented, but not varied (subject to clause 5.1(b)), by standards and procedures prescribed by FA from time to time, including, without limitation:
 - (i) the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards;
 - (ii) the Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards; and
 - (iii) Hahn Australia Cup Policies and Procedures.

1.3 FA Jurisdiction and Obligations

- (a) FA, as the member of FIFA for Australia, is responsible for the organisation, promotion and administration of football throughout Australia. Accordingly, it has jurisdiction over all Matches and Competitions within Australia, including the Hahn Australia Cup.

- (b) FA:
 - (i) must comply with these Regulations and ensure that these Regulations are not inconsistent with FIFA Statutes and FA Statutes;
 - (ii) may enforce these Regulations against Hahn Australia Cup Participants;
 - (iii) may investigate potential and actual breaches of these Regulations by or against a Hahn Australia Cup Participant;
 - (iv) may impose disciplinary sanctions against a Hahn Australia Cup Participant found to have breached these Regulations; and
 - (v) will provide appropriate education and training to those who manage and implement these Regulations.

1.4 Schedules

The Schedules form part of these Regulations.

1.5 Hahn Australia Cup Standards and Policies and Procedures

- (a) The Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards outline the match day procedures and requirements applying to the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and the Final Rounds.
- (b) The Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards outline the minimum match day security procedures and requirements applying to the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (c) All Hahn Australia Cup Participants must comply with the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards, the Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards and the Hahn Australia Cup Policies and Procedures to the extent that they apply to them.
- (d) FA may from time to time issue additional policies, procedures and guidelines relating to the operation and administration of the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (e) In the event of inconsistency between:
 - (i) the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards, the Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards and the Hahn Australia Cup Policies and Procedures; and
 - (ii) the operative provisions of these Regulations,
 - (iii) the operative provisions of these Regulations will prevail.

1.6 Hahn Australia Cup COVID-19 Protocol

- (a) FA may from time to time issue protocols relating to the scheduling and operation of Hahn Australia Cup Matches due to the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and restrictions imposed by the Federal, State and Territory Governments.
- (b) The Hahn Australia Cup COVID-19 Protocol outlines the policies, process and requirements for the safe delivery of Hahn Australia Cup Matches in the 2025 Hahn Australia Cup.
- (c) All Hahn Australia Cup Participants participating in the Hahn Australia Cup Final Rounds Playoff and Final Round Matches, must comply with the Hahn Australia Cup COVID Protocol.
- (d) In the event of any inconsistency between the Hahn Australia Cup COVID-19 Protocol and these Regulations, these Regulations will prevail unless otherwise directed by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.

1.7 Body Camera Trial

- (a) FA intends to participate in a limited trial involving certain Match Officials wearing body cameras (bodycams) during certain Matches, which is part of an overall endeavour to identify possible measures to improve player/coach behaviour during football matches (Body Cam Trial).
- (b) If the Body Cam Trial extends to Hahn Australia Cup Matches, FA will issue supplementary regulations and protocols governing the scope and application of the Body Cam Trial in accordance with clause 1.2(e). These supplementary regulations and protocols will include:
 - (i) the notification to Hahn Australia Cup Participants of the Body Cam Trial;
 - (ii) the circumstances in which the bodycams will be activated; and
 - (iii) the use, storage and deletion of bodycam footage by FA.
- (c) All Hahn Australia Cup Participants must comply with, and consent to the use of, bodycams in accordance with any regulations or protocols issued under this clause 1.7

2. NOTICE AND DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS – BREACH OF THE REGULATIONS

- (a) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant acknowledges that in order to meet the stated objectives of these Regulations, their terms must be strictly complied with and their spirit and intent honoured and, as the Competition Administrator, FA has the power to impose sanctions on Hahn Australia Cup Participants under these Regulations and in accordance with the FA Statutes.
- (b) Other than in relation to matters falling under clause 24 of these Regulations, FA may enforce the terms of these Regulations and invoke the sanctions only if it has given the Hahn Australia Cup Participant alleged to have breached these Regulations:

- (i) reasonable and sufficient notice of each and every particular of the alleged breach;
 - (ii) notice of possible sanctions; and
 - (iii) the opportunity to be heard and to make submissions in relation to that alleged breach.
- (c) The scope and implementation of disciplinary sanctions is as specified in these Regulations and in the FA Constitution.
- (d) If a Hahn Australia Cup Participant wishes to appeal a sanction imposed by FA under these Regulations, that Hahn Australia Cup Participant may appeal in accordance with the Grievance Procedure By-Law, provided it does so within seven (7) business days of notice of the sanction or determination.
- (e) FA may excuse:
 - (i) a Hahn Australia Cup Participant from liability if that party ought to reasonably and fairly be excused, wholly or partly, from that liability on such terms as FA thinks fit;
 - (ii) a Player from liability in consideration of the Player's co-operation and assistance in establishing a breach of the Regulations by any Hahn Australia Cup Participant on such terms as FA thinks fit in FA's sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (iii) an Official from liability in consideration of the Official's co-operation and assistance in establishing a breach of the Regulations by any Hahn Australia Cup Participant on such terms as FA thinks fit in FA's sole and absolute discretion.
- (f) A Club:
 - (i) must ensure that its Players and Officials of the Club comply with these Regulations; and
 - (ii) will be deemed to have committed a breach of these Regulations in the event any of its Players or Officials are deemed to have committed a breach of these Regulations. In such circumstances, the Club may be liable for such breach by any of its Players or Officials.

For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not limit FA's right to impose sanctions on the Club's Players or Officials for breach of the Regulations.

3. FA STATUTES COMPLIANCE

- (a) Hahn Australia Cup Participants must comply with, and are bound by, and must abide by, the FA Statutes and, in particular:
 - (i) the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations;
 - (ii) the National Disciplinary Regulations;

- (iii) the National Code of Conduct and Ethics;
 - (iv) the Member Protection Framework (including the National Safeguarding Policy);
 - (v) where applicable, the Player Contract Regulations; and
 - (vi) these Regulations.
- (b) The National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations regulate the eligibility, registration, contracting, payments, and loan and transfer of Players who enter into, participate in, and leave football in Australia, including Players in the Hahn Australia Cup. In particular, the following articles must be complied with:
 - (i) article 9 (Contracting);
 - (ii) article 10 (Contractual Stability);
 - (iii) article 13 (Transfers and Loans of Professionals);
 - (iv) article 14 (Training Rewards and Transfer Fees for Professionals); and
 - (v) article 15 (Release of Players).

4. LAWS OF THE GAME

- (a) The Hahn Australia Cup will be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game. This includes all Preliminary Round Matches, Final Rounds Playoff and Final Round Matches.
- (b) These Regulations supplement the Laws of the Game.
- (c) A copy of the Laws of the Game can be found on the IFAB website at <http://www.theifab.com>.
- (d) A Referee, from the time of entering the field of play for a pre-match Hahn Australia Cup Match inspection until leaving the field of play after the Hahn Australia Cup Match ends (including penalties), may take the following disciplinary action during the Preliminary Rounds, Final Rounds Playoff and Final Rounds:
 - (i) in the case of a Player, issue a Player Yellow Card in accordance with the Laws of the Game;
 - (ii) in the case of a Player, issue a Player Red Card in accordance with the Laws of the Game;
 - (iii) in the case of a Team Official, issue a Team Official Yellow Card in accordance with the Laws of the Game; and/or
 - (iv) in the case of a Team Official, issue a Team Official Red Card in accordance with the Laws of the Game.

5. CONTROL OF THE HAHN AUSTRALIA CUP

5.1 Ownership and Control

- (a) The ownership, organisation, control and management of the Hahn Australia Cup and any rights associated with it of any nature whatsoever is entirely and exclusively vested in, and remains with, FA.
- (b) FA has the power to make, delete and amend these Regulations for the organisation, control and management of the Hahn Australia Cup from time to time with immediate effect upon giving notice in writing.

5.2 Delegation for Management

- (a) Subject to clause 5.2(b) below, for Preliminary Round Matches, FA may delegate certain rights and obligations to Member Federations regarding the organisation, control and management of the Hahn Australia Cup within its designated geographical territory.
- (b) If FA delegates any rights to Member Federations pursuant to clause 5.2(a) above:
 - (i) such organisation, control and management must be conducted in accordance with these Regulations and any other such conditions prescribed by FA to the Member Federation in FA's sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (ii) where a Member Federation proposes to supplement these Regulations with specific rules addressing the delegation of rights by FA (Supplementary Regulations), the Member Federation must obtain FA's prior written approval (which may be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion) prior to issuing any Supplementary Regulations. In the event of inconsistency between any Supplementary Regulations and these Regulations, these Regulations prevail.
- (c) FA retains the right to issue directions to Member Federations and participating Clubs regarding the organisation, control and management of Hahn Australia Cup Matches, such directions to have immediate effect unless expressed otherwise.

5.3 Disqualification

In accordance with FA Statutes, FA has the power to disqualify or suspend Hahn Australia Cup Participants from the Hahn Australia Cup for non-compliance with the FA Statutes including, without limitation, these Regulations.

6. CLUB ELIGIBILITY AND REGISTRATION

6.1 Club Eligibility

- (a) In order to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, a Club must:

- (i) be registered with a Member Federation and/or FA, and be registered with FA in accordance with the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations;
 - (ii) submit to FA a signed, completed copy of the Hahn Australia Cup Club Registration Form;
 - (iii) have a senior men's team participating in a Competition;
 - (iv) only enter one (1) team in the Hahn Australia Cup (such team must be the team referred to in clause 6.1(a)(ii) and, where a Club has multiple senior men's teams, such team must be that of the highest competitive standard);
 - (v) for the Preliminary Rounds make payment of the Preliminary Round Registration Fee in accordance with the relevant payment process determined by each Member Federation pursuant to clause 6.2(a); and
 - (vi) for the Final Rounds (if the Club has qualified for the Final Rounds) make payment of the prescribed Final Round Registration Fee not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the day fixed for playing the Club's first Final Round Match.
- (b) Without limiting the application of these Regulations, including clauses 1.2 and 3, by participating in the Hahn Australia Cup, each Club agrees it is bound by all FIFA Statutes and FA Statutes, including these Regulations, the Laws of the Game and any rules, standards and/or policies prescribed by the relevant Member Federation from time to time.
- (c) Clubs must not be subject to or suffer an Insolvency Event when applying to enter the Hahn Australia Cup or at any time during the course of their participation in the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (d) If, after it has been accepted into the Hahn Australia Cup, a Club is removed from the Competition referred to in clause 6.3, FA may, in its sole and absolute discretion, reject or withdraw acceptance of that Club's application for entry into the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (e) Unless advised otherwise by FA, Clubs will be seeded or otherwise qualify for the Hahn Australia Cup in accordance with clause 8 of these Regulations.
- (f) FA may, in its sole and absolute discretion, reject the application of any Club to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (g) Representative Teams are ineligible to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (h) Where a Club fails to satisfy Club eligibility requirements or is removed from the Hahn Australia Cup, FA reserves the right to determine a replacement Club, with such replacement Club to be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.

6.2 Registration Fees

- (a) For the Preliminary Rounds:

- (ii) the Preliminary Round Registration Fee for participating Member Federation Clubs is:
 - (A) $825 (exclusive of GST) for a National Premier Leagues Club that participates in the top tier of National Premier Leagues established within their respective Member Federation for that season; and
 - (B) $330 (exclusive of GST) for a Member Federation Club that is not a National Premier Leagues Club.
 - (iii) each Member Federation will determine the payment process for the Preliminary Round Registration Fee; and
 - (iv) each Member Federation must pay to FA, by such date as notified by FA to a Member Federation, an amount representing the total of all Preliminary Round Registration Fees payable to that Member Federation for its Member Federation Clubs participating in the Preliminary Rounds.
- (b) For the Final Rounds and Final Rounds Playoffs:
 - (i) the Final Round Registration Fee for participating Clubs is:
 - (A) Subject to clause 6.2(b)(i)(B), $8,662.50 (exclusive of GST) for A-League Men Clubs;
 - (B) $2,310 (exclusive of GST) for National Premier Leagues Clubs and for the two A-League Men Clubs that do not advance from the Final Rounds Playoffs; and
 - (C) $1,155 (exclusive of GST) for Member Federation Clubs that are not National Premier Leagues Clubs; and
 - (ii) the Final Round Registration Fee must be paid in accordance with clause 6.1(a)(vi).

6.3 Club Removal

Clubs who:

- (a) are removed from the Hahn Australia Cup by FA in accordance with these Regulations; or
- (b) are subject to or suffer an Insolvency Event after applying for entry into the Hahn Australia Cup or otherwise during its participation in the Hahn Australia Cup may be removed from the Hahn Australia Cup by FA; and
- (c) will be deemed in breach of these Regulations and may be subject to disciplinary sanctions as determined by FA.

7. COMPETITION INTEGRITY

7.1 Squad Strength

A Club must field a strong and competitive team in all Hahn Australia Cup Matches, including, without limitation, by playing the best available Players at all times.

7.2 Conflicts of Interest

- (a) Unless otherwise approved by FA in its sole and absolute discretion and in writing, if a Club participating in the Hahn Australia Cup has a Material Interest in another Club participating in the Hahn Australia Cup or wishing to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, that other Club will not be permitted to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup at any stage.
- (b) Unless otherwise approved by FA in its sole and absolute discretion and in writing, if:
 - (i) a person has a Material Interest in more than one Club participating in the Hahn Australia Cup or wishing to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, only one of those Clubs will be permitted to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, which will be the Club nominated by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; or
 - (ii) a person has a Material Interest in a Club participating in the Hahn Australia Cup or wishing to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup and an Associate of that person has a Material Interest in another Club participating in the Hahn Australia Cup or wishing to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, only one of those Clubs shall be permitted to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup, which shall be the Club nominated by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.

8. HAHN AUSTRALIA CUP STRUCTURE

8.1 Preliminary Rounds

- (a) The Preliminary Rounds will be structured and operated by each Member Federation within its designated geographical territory in accordance with these Regulations and be subject always to FA approval (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion).
- (b) The Preliminary Rounds are comprised of all Hahn Australia Cup Matches played prior to the Round of 32 (excluding the Final Rounds Playoff), which are to be operated within each respective Member Federation's designated geographical territory.
- (c) The Preliminary Rounds conducted by each Member Federation pursuant to clause 8.1(a) above will determine the Member Federation Club(s) (other than the Member Federation Club admitted to the Hahn Australia Cup pursuant to clause 8.7(a)(i)(J))

from within each Member Federation's designated geographical territory who will qualify for the Final Rounds.

- (d) A-League Men Clubs are ineligible to participate in the Preliminary Rounds, unless otherwise determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion. A-League Men Clubs' entry to the Final Rounds are determined by clause 8.6(b).

8.2 Final Rounds Playoffs

The Final Rounds Playoffs will comprise of two (2) knockout Hahn Australia Cup Matches between the A-League Men Clubs that finish the 2024/25 A-League Men Season between tenth (10th) and thirteenth (13th) positions on the table at the conclusion of the regular season.

- (a) The following format will be used for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches:
 - (i) 10th v 13th; and
 - (ii) 11th v 12th.
- (b) The Final Rounds Playoff Matches will determine the tenth (10th) and eleventh (11th) A-League Men Club (in addition to the nine (9) A-League Men Clubs admitted to the Hahn Australia Cup pursuant to clause 8.7(a)(ii)) to qualify for the Final Rounds.
- (c) Where a Club is withdrawn from the Final Rounds Playoffs or is otherwise excluded, suspended or expelled from the Final Rounds Playoffs (Withdrawn Playoff Club), FA will determine (in its sole and absolute discretion) that the Withdrawn Playoff Club has forfeited its Final Rounds Playoff Match and the Withdrawn Playoff Club's opponent will qualify for the Final Rounds.

8.3 Final Rounds Playoffs Operations

Subject to clause 22.2(g), the Final Rounds Playoffs will be overseen and regulated by FA with event and match day operations to be coordinated by the Home Club with assistance from FA. For the avoidance of doubt, FA has the discretion to determine the outcome of any event and match day operational decision in relation to the Final Rounds Playoffs.

- (a) Participating A-League Men Clubs will incur all applicable Venue hosting costs and receive all related match day revenue.

8.4 Final Rounds

- (a) The Final Rounds will be comprised of the Round of 32, Round of 16, Quarter Finals, Semi Finals and the Hahn Australia Cup Final.
- (b) The Final Rounds will be structured as follows:
 - (i) Round of 32:

 - (ii) Round of 16:

The sixteen (16) winning Clubs from the Round of 32 will play off in eight (8) Round of 16 knockout Hahn Australia Cup Matches as determined by the Hahn Australia Cup Final Round Draw Process and Match Schedule.

(iii) Quarter Finals:

The eight (8) winning Clubs from the Round of 16 will play off in four (4) Quarter Final knockout Hahn Australia Cup Matches as determined by the Hahn Australia Cup Final Round Draw Process and Match Schedule.

(iv) Semi Finals:

The four (4) winning Clubs from the Quarter Finals will play off in two (2) Semi Final knockout Hahn Australia Cup Matches as determined by the Hahn Australia Cup Final Round Draw Process and Match Schedule.

(v) Hahn Australia Cup Final:

The two (2) winning Clubs from the Semi Finals will play off in the Hahn Australia Cup Final. The winning Club will be crowned Hahn Australia Cup Winners and be awarded the Hahn Australia Cup Trophy in accordance with clause 30(c).

(c) Where a Club is withdrawn from a Final Round Match or is otherwise excluded, suspended or expelled from the Final Rounds (Withdrawn Club), FA will determine (in its sole and absolute discretion) that:

- (i) the Withdrawn Club has forfeited their next scheduled Final Round Match as determined by the Draw Process and Match Schedule and the Withdrawn Club's opponent for that next scheduled Final Round Match receives a bye in respect of that Hahn Australia Cup Match; or
- (ii) the Club which the Withdrawn Club defeated in its immediately preceding Final Round Match prior to its withdrawal, exclusion, suspension or expulsion, will proceed in the Hahn Australia Cup in place of the Withdrawn Club.

8.5 Final Round Operations

- (a) Hahn Australia Cup Matches occurring as part of the Round of 32, Round of 16, Quarter Finals and Semi Finals will be overseen and regulated by FA with event and match day operations to be coordinated by Home Clubs with assistance from Member Federations.
- (b) The Hahn Australia Cup Final will be overseen and regulated by FA and FA has full control of all event and match day operations. FA will determine the selection of the city and Venue for the Hahn Australia Cup Final in its sole and absolute discretion. Such a decision to allocate the Venue will be made based on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, venue availability, security, commercial, marketing and financial considerations. Furthermore, FA will incur all applicable Venue hosting costs and receive all related match day revenue.

8.6 Final Round Qualification

- (a) In order to qualify for the Final Rounds, Member Federation Clubs must:
 - (i) register and participate in the Preliminary Rounds as outlined in clause 8.1;
 - (ii) reach the required stage of the Preliminary Rounds, as conducted by the relevant Member Federation, based on the Hahn Australia Cup slot allocation for that Member Federation outlined in clause 8.7(a); and
 - (iii) be approved by FA to participate in the Hahn Australia Cup in accordance with clause 6.1.
- (b) In order to qualify for the Final Rounds, A-League Men Clubs must:
 - (i) be one of the nine (9) highest ranked A-League Men Clubs at the conclusion of the 2024/25 A-League Men regular season; or
 - (ii) be one of the two (2) winners of the Final Rounds Playoffs.

8.7 Final Round Entrant Allocations

- (a) The number of Club entrants for the Final Rounds are as follows:

 - (iii) the nine (9) highest ranked A-League Men Clubs at the conclusion of the 2024/25 A-League Men regular season; and
 - (iv) the two (2) winners of the Final Rounds Playoffs.

9. CONDUCT OF COMPETITION DRAW

- (a) The Final Round Draw Process and Match Schedule will be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion. The Final Rounds Draw Process and Match Schedule will operate in accordance with the Hahn Australia Cup Draw Principles; however, FA reserves the right to amend this document from time to time with immediate effect upon giving notice in writing.

- (b) The Final Round Playoff Matches Schedule will be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (c) For the Preliminary Rounds:
 - (i) FA may delegate the conduct of the draw process and match schedule to each Member Federation in respect of Hahn Australia Cup Matches played between Member Federation Clubs within its designated geographical territory;
 - (ii) where FA delegates the conduct of the draw process and match schedule pursuant to clause 9(b)(i), a Member Federation may sub-delegate to a District Association, provided that the District Association complies with any directions of the Member Federation with respect to the conduct of the draw process and match schedule delegated to it in accordance with this clause 9(b); and
 - (iii) in the event FA does not make a delegation pursuant to this paragraph 9(c), the Preliminary Round draw process and match schedule will be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.

10. MATCH DURATION

10.1 Duration

- (a) Each Hahn Australia Cup Match will consist of two (2) equal halves of forty-five (45) minutes to total a “full” regular period Match time of ninety (90) minutes, excluding any allowance for time lost as determined by the Referee.
- (b) Competing Clubs must enter the field of play at least three (3) minutes prior to the scheduled kick-off time.
- (c) The half-time break for each Hahn Australia Cup Match will be fifteen (15) minutes.
- (d) Competing Clubs must enter the field of play at least three (3) minutes prior to the end of the half-time break.

10.2 Extra Time and Penalties

- (a) Replays do not apply for drawn Hahn Australia Cup Matches.
- (b) If, at the conclusion of the regular period in any Hahn Australia Cup Match (including injury time), the scores between the two (2) Clubs are tied, then extra time of two (2) equal periods of fifteen (15) minutes will be played. The conditions of the FIFA Laws of the Game will apply.
- (c) If scores remain equal at the conclusion of both periods of extra time, penalty kicks will be taken to determine the winner of the Hahn Australia Cup Match. Subject to the clause 10.2(d), such penalty kicks will be taken in accordance with the FIFA Laws of the Game.

- (d) The location of the penalty kicks will be decided by tossing a coin unless it is otherwise determined by:
 - (i) the Referee in accordance with the Laws of the Game; or
 - (ii) the Match Commissioner following consultation and agreement with the Referee, where there are relevant operational, performance and safety considerations that promote the taking of the penalty kicks from a particular goal (e.g. ground conditions, broadcast infrastructure).
- (e) For Preliminary Round Matches:
 - (i) extra time may be dispensed with in exceptional circumstances and only if pre-determined between the competing Clubs, the Member Federation and approved by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (ii) where approval is provided by FA (in its sole and absolute discretion) for extra time to be dispensed and scores are tied at the conclusion of the regular period, penalty kicks will be taken in accordance with the FIFA Laws of the Game to determine the winner of the Hahn Australia Cup Match.

11. MATCH DETERMINATION

- (a) Subject to clauses 11(b) and 11(c), the result of each Hahn Australia Cup Match will be determined in accordance with the Laws of the Game and these Regulations.
- (b) Subject to clause 11(c), each Member Federation has the right in exceptional circumstances (such exceptional circumstances as determined by that Member Federation in its sole and absolute discretion) to determine the result of any Preliminary Round Match, including, without limitation, that there has been no result.
- (c) FA reserves the right in exceptional circumstances (such exceptional circumstances as determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion) to determine the result of any Hahn Australia Cup Match, including, without limitation, that there has been no result.
- (d) Any Club that loses a Hahn Australia Cup Match will be eliminated from the Hahn Australia Cup, unless otherwise approved by FA (such approval to be granted or withheld by FA in its sole and absolute discretion).

12. DELAYED, POSTPONED, SUSPENDED ABANDONED, RESCHEDULED AND FORFEITED HAHN AUSTRALIA CUP MATCHES

12.1 Delayed, Postponed, Abandoned and Rescheduled Hahn Australia Cup Matches

- (a) The decision to delay, postpone or abandon a Hahn Australia Cup Match during:
 - (i) Preliminary Round Matches will be made by the relevant Member Federation in its sole and absolute discretion following consultation with the Match Officials and the participating Member Federation Clubs; and

- (ii) the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches may only be made by:
 - (A) the Referee in accordance with the Laws of the Game;
 - (B) the Match Commissioner in accordance with the thunderstorm and lightning Guidelines in the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards or any other policy published by FA from time to time; or
 - (C) FA, in its sole and absolute discretion (including for the avoidance of doubt, due to a Force Majeure Event). In making its decision, FA may consult with, and take into account, any recommendations of the Match Commissioner, Referee, medical staff (including Club doctors), Venue staff (including security personnel), the broadcaster, participating Clubs, and any other relevant party as determined by FA.
- (b) If, in accordance with clause 12.1(a), a Hahn Australia Cup Match is postponed prior to kick-off or abandoned prior to sixty (60) minutes of the regular period having been played, the Hahn Australia Cup Match must be:
 - (i) subject always to clause 22.2(e), for Preliminary Round Matches, rescheduled by the relevant Member Federation to a day and time determined by the Member Federation, provided that the rescheduled Preliminary Round Match occurs within seven (7) days unless otherwise approved by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (ii) for the Final Round Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, rescheduled to a day, time and Venue determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (c) If, in accordance with clause 12.1(a), a Hahn Australia Cup Match is abandoned at or after sixty (60) minutes of the regular period being played, unless exceptional circumstances apply (such exceptional circumstances as determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion):
 - (i) subject to clause 12.1(c)(ii) below, the result at the time of abandonment will be declared the final result; or
 - (ii) where at the time of the Hahn Australia Cup Match being abandoned scores are level:
 - (A) for Preliminary Round Matches, the Hahn Australia Cup Match must be rescheduled in accordance with clause 12.1(b)(i); and
 - (B) for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, the Hahn Australia Cup Match must be rescheduled in accordance with clause 12.1(b)(ii).
- (d) Where a Hahn Australia Cup Match has been postponed or abandoned two (2) times or is unable to be rescheduled in accordance with clause 12, the winner will be determined by the toss of a coin.

12.2 Commencement of a Delayed Match

- (a) The decision whether or not to start a Match that has been delayed under clause 12.1(a)(ii) and, if so, what time the Match is to commence will be made by the General Manager – Competitions in his or her sole and absolute discretion. In making his or her decision, the General Manager – Competitions may consult with relevant stakeholders and taking into account the recommendation at the Match Venue by the FA Representative after consultation with the Match Day Event Manager, the Match Referee and the key match day stakeholders.
- (b) Where a delayed match cannot be commenced within a reasonable length of time on the Match Day, as determined by FA in consultation with the FA Representative and/or Match Commissioner at the Venue, it will be declared a postponed fixture.

12.3 Suspension of Matches

- (a) The decision to suspend a match that has already started may only be made by:
 - (i) the Referee in accordance with the Laws of the Game;
 - (ii) the Match Commissioner in accordance with the thunderstorm / and lightning Guidelines in the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards or any other policy published by FA from time to time; or
 - (iii) FA, the police, or any other authority exercising its statutory powers, in response to a serious threat to the safety of persons within the Venue.

12.4 Restart of Matches

- (a) The Match Commissioner will be responsible for determining whether to restart a Match that has been suspended under clause 12.1(a)(ii) and, if so, what time the Match is to restart. In making his or her decision, the Match Commissioner must consult with relevant stakeholders, including the Referee, nominated FA representative, competing Clubs, Venue manager, broadcaster (if applicable) and any other relevant parties.
- (b) Where a suspended Match cannot be restarted within a reasonable length of time on Match day (as determined by FA in consultation with the Match Commissioner), the Match will be deemed to be abandoned.

12.5 Forfeited Matches

- (a) The decision that a Hahn Australia Cup Match is forfeited by a Club during the:
 - (i) Preliminary Rounds, will be made by the relevant Member Federation in its sole and absolute discretion, following consultation with participating Member Federation Clubs and Match Officials; and
 - (ii) Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Rounds, will be made by FA in its sole and absolute discretion, following consultation with participating Clubs, the relevant Member Federations, Match Officials and the Match Commissioner (where applicable).
- (b) A forfeit will include, but not be limited to a Club being unable or unwilling to:

- (i) participate in a Hahn Australia Cup Match within 15 minutes after the scheduled kick off time due to any act or omission of the Club; or
 - (ii) continue to participate in a Hahn Australia Cup Match (including because it cannot place the required number of Players on the field due to Offences or injury),
 - (iii) but will exclude any inability to participate due to a Force Majeure Event.
- (c) If a Club forfeits a scheduled Hahn Australia Cup Match:
 - (i) prior to kick off, the opposing Club will be deemed to have won the Hahn Australia Cup Match by a score of three (3) goals to nil (0); or
 - (ii) after the Hahn Australia Cup Match has commenced, the opposing Club will be deemed to have won the match by a score of three (3) goals to nil (0), or the actual goal difference at the time of forfeit, whichever is the greater.
- (d) A Club that forfeits a Hahn Australia Cup Match will be deemed to be in breach of these Regulations and may also be subject to additional sanctions by FA including potential financial compensation of FA and/or the opposing Club.
- (e) Notwithstanding any other provision in these Regulations, under no circumstances will FA be liable to any Member Federation, District Association, Official, Club or Player, and Member Federations are not liable to any District Association, Official, Club or Player, for any loss (including, without limitation, consequential loss) arising out of or in connection with the delay, postponement, abandonment, cancellation or forfeiture of a Hahn Australia Cup Match.

13. PLAYER ROSTERS AND ELIGIBILITY

13.1 Player Rosters

- (a) For the Preliminary Rounds, Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster requirements (as prescribed by FA from time to time) may be supplemented by Member Federation regulations, subject always to the Member Federation obtaining FA's prior written approval prior to issuing such regulations (which may be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion).
- (b) During the Final Rounds Playoffs and the Final Rounds, each participating Club must maintain a Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster, and a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster at all times must:
 - (i) include a minimum of eighteen (18) Players;
 - (ii) not include more than twenty-five (25) Players; and
 - (iii) include at least two (2) Goalkeepers.
- (c) All Clubs participating in the:
 - (i) Final Rounds Playoff Matches must submit a Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form not less than ten (10) days prior to the day scheduled for its Final Rounds Playoff Match as confirmation that it is compliant with the requirements of this clause 13; and
 - (ii) Final Rounds must submit a Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form not less than ten (10) days prior to the day scheduled for a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Match as confirmation that it is compliant with the requirements of this clause 13.
- (d) During the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Rounds, each participating Club may not change their Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form after 5pm (AEST) on the day immediately prior to their scheduled match, unless otherwise determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion. Clarifying amendments to shirt numbers or spelling of Player and/or Team Officials may still be made after this time.
- (e) FA will maintain the list of Players on each Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster.

13.2 Player Eligibility and Registration

- (a) To be eligible to play in the Hahn Australia Cup, Players must be currently registered to their Club in accordance with the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations (including, without limitation, compliance with International Transfer Certificates and transfer requirements).
- (b) In addition to clause 13.2(a), for A-League Men Clubs, Players must:
 - (i) be registered in accordance with the Player Contract Regulations and be eligible to participate in the A-League Men or A-League Youth; or
 - (ii) where registered only with that A-League Men Club's National Premier Leagues team, be registered in accordance with any applicable Member

- Federation registration rules and lodge with FA a copy of the Player's Australian driver's licence and/or passport; and
- (iii) be included on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form and be submitted to FA for approval in accordance with clause 13.1.
- (c) In addition to clause 13.2(a), for Member Federation Clubs:
 - (i) Players (other than a Guest Player and a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player) must be registered to their Member Federation Club in accordance with any Member Federation registration rules applicable to that Club's senior men's team (referred to in clause 6.1(a)(i)), and:
 - (A) a Guest Player must be registered to their Member Federation Club in accordance with clause 13.4; and
 - (B) a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player must be registered to their Member Federation Club in accordance with clause 13.5;
 - (ii) subject to clause 13.4(d), where a National Premier Leagues Club, that Club must comply with the relevant Member Federation Player Points System for Preliminary Rounds and the FA Player Points System for Final Rounds, unless determined otherwise by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (iii) with respect to Final Rounds:
 - (A) lodge a copy of the Player's Australian driver's licence and/or passport; and
 - (B) be included on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form and be submitted to FA for approval in accordance with clause 13.1.
- (d) For amateur Players to be eligible to participate for Wellington Phoenix FC or Auckland FC in the Hahn Australia Cup, a Player must:
 - (i) be registered as an amateur to Wellington Phoenix FC or Auckland FC in accordance with the relevant New Zealand Football Statutes and Regulations, including in relation to International Transfer Certificates;
 - (ii) be born between 1 January 2004 and 31 December 2008 (inclusive), unless FA approves a Player born after 31 December 2008 (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion);
 - (iii) be an Australian or New Zealand citizen;
 - (iv) lodge a copy of the Player's Australian or New Zealand driver's licence and/ or passport; and
 - (v) be included on Wellington Phoenix FC's or Auckland FC's 'Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster Form' and be submitted to FA for approval in accordance with clause 13.1.
- (e) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Rounds:

- (i) where the Player eligibility requirements are met in accordance with clause 13.2, FA may, in its sole and absolute discretion, approve an application for a Player to be allocated to a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster. Upon approval, and other than where such Player is a Guest Player, FA must enter such Player's name on that Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster;
 - (ii) Players may be added or removed from a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster in accordance with this clause 13, up to 5pm (AEST) on the day immediately prior to their scheduled Hahn Australia Cup Match, up until and including the Semi Finals of the Hahn Australia Cup, and
 - (iii) at 5pm (AEST) on the day immediately prior to the second scheduled Semi Final, Players may no longer be added or removed from a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster, notwithstanding that FA may approve the addition or removal of Players at any other time in exceptional circumstances, such exceptional circumstances to be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (f) FA has the power to call upon a Player and/or the Club to which he is registered, to prove that the Player is eligible to play for that Club according to these Regulations.
- (g) Where a Player no longer satisfies the eligibility requirements as set out in this clause 13.2, the Club must notify FA, and the Player will be removed from the Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster.

13.3 Cup-tied Players

- (a) Subject to clauses 13.3(b) and 13.3(c), a Player is only eligible to participate with one (1) Club in each season of the Hahn Australia Cup. A Player will be deemed to have participated in a Hahn Australia Cup Match where they have:
- (i) been listed as a Player on the team sheet for the Hahn Australia Cup Match; and
 - (ii) played in the Hahn Australia Cup Match either as a starting player or as a substitute (noting that this does not include an unused substitute).
- (b) FA may approve a Goalkeeper to play for an A-League Men Club or a Member Federation Club as his second Club in the same year of the Hahn Australia Cup if:
- (i) FA determines in its sole and absolute discretion that exceptional circumstances exist; and
 - (ii) the Goalkeeper has not already participated in the Final Rounds in the same year of the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (c) Clause 13.3(a) does not apply, and a Player is eligible to participate in the Finals Rounds with an A-League Men Club or Member Federation Club as his second Club in the same year of the Hahn Australia Cup, if:
- (i) the Player participated in a Final Rounds Playoff Match with his first Club; and

- (ii) that Final Rounds Playoff Match was played before the start of the second Registration Period for men in 2025; and
- (iii) the Player transferred to his second Club between that Final Rounds Playoff Match and the commencement of the Final Rounds.

13.4 Guest Players

- (a) For Final Rounds only, a Member Federation Club may apply to FA to have one (1) Guest Player that sits outside the Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster. The Guest Player must be registered in accordance with these Regulations and the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations, and must also be a player of significant international reputation who will attract interest, media and fans to the Hahn Australia Cup and not be a mechanism to simply bolster the Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster of a Member Federation Club, as determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion, taking into account the following criteria:
 - (i) the player's number of appearances for a national representative team or selection in a national training squad;
 - (ii) the player's experience in international football leagues, including the number of years and appearances in that league, the standard of the league and how recent that experience is;
 - (iii) the international profile of the player and his potential marketability for the Club and the Hahn Australia Cup as a whole; and
 - (iv) any other factor considered by FA to be relevant.
- (b) An application for a Guest Player must be received by FA no later than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the scheduled kick-off time for a Member Federation Club's Final Rounds Match.
- (c) A Guest Player may not register with more than one (1) Member Federation Club in a season of the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (d) Where a Guest Player application by a National Premier Leagues Club is approved by FA in accordance with this clause 13.4, such a Guest Player will not be required to comply with that Club's Player Points System requirements in clause 13.2(c)(ii) for the purposes of the Hahn Australia Cup only, provided that such a Guest Player is not registered to participate in the National Premier Leagues with that National Premier Leagues Club.

13.5 Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Players

- (a) For the Final Rounds only, a Member Federation Club may apply to FA in writing for the prior written approval of a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player, with such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion.
- (b) The starting position of FA is that a Member Federation Club will replace unavailable players by promoting from the Member Federation Club's existing pool of registered players.

- (c) The Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player must be registered in accordance with these Regulations, the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations, and must:
 - (i) be included on the Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster; and
 - (ii) only be included on such Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster where that Member Federation Club is unable to meet the minimum Hahn Australia Cup Roster requirements stipulated in clause 13.1(b);
 - (iii) only be eligible to participate in a Match if included on that Member Federation's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster, in particular, in accordance with clause 13.5(c)(ii); and
 - (iv) not be a mechanism to simply bolster the Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster of a Member Federation Club,as determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion, taking into account:
 - (v) whether or not the Member Federation Club's senior men's team has been materially affected by Player injury and/or unavailability;
 - (vi) the Member Federation Club's ability to replace unavailable Players with players already registered with the Member Federation Club; and
 - (vii) any other factor considered by FA to be relevant.
- (d) FA will not approve an application for a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player where a Member Federation Club has the minimum number of Players specified in clause 13.1(b) on that Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster at the relevant time.
- (e) An application for a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player must be received no later than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the scheduled kick-off time for a Member Federation Club's Final Rounds Match provided always that such application is otherwise in accordance with these Regulations and the National Registration, Status and Transfer Regulations.
- (f) A Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player will be registered to a Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster and the Member Federation Club must comply with the FA Player Points System requirements in clause 13.2(c)(ii).
- (g) A Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player may not be registered with more than one (1) Club each season of the Hahn Australia Cup and is otherwise subject to the Cup-tied requirements in clause 13.3.
- (h) For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of a Hahn Australia Cup Emergency Player on a Member Federation Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster does not entitle them to participate in any Competition other than the Hahn Australia Cup.

14. TEAM OFFICIALS

14.1 FA Statutes and Regulations

- (a) Without limiting clause 3, all Club Officials are bound by and must comply with all FA Statutes, including the National Code of Conduct and Ethics and National Safeguarding Policy.
- (b) The National Code of Conduct and Ethics aims to promote and strengthen the reputation of football in Australia by establishing a standard of performance, behaviour and professionalism for all Members and stakeholders. In addition, it seeks to deter conduct that could impair public confidence in the honest and professional conduct of Matches or in the integrity and good character of its Members.
- (c) The National Safeguarding Policy aims to create a safe environment for children and vulnerable persons by (amongst other things) promoting and strengthening the selection criteria for Team Officials, including the maintenance of working with vulnerable person checks in accordance with the applicable legislation.

14.2 Registration of Team Officials

- (a) A Club wishing to employ, engage or use the services of a Team Official must:
 - (i) for Member Federation Clubs participating in the Preliminary Rounds, register them with, and receive approval from, the relevant Member Federation (if prescribed by the relevant Member Federation);
 - (ii) for A-League Men Clubs, register them in accordance with the A-League Men Competition Regulations; and
 - (iii) for Member Federation Clubs participating in the Final Rounds:
 - (A) ensure the Team Official has self-registered via PlayFootball and the Club has accepted the Team Official's registration;
 - (B) where applicable, submit copies of documents evidencing the Team Official's relevant qualifications in accordance with clause 14.3(b);
 - (C) submit a copy of the Team Official's Australian driver's licence and/or passport; and
 - (D) submit a Hahn Australia Cup Team Officials Application Form, listing the eligible Team Officials a Club wishes to participate in the Final Rounds, to FA for approval via not less than ten (10) days prior to the day scheduled for a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Final Rounds Match
- (ii) without limiting any obligations at law, ensure that such Team Officials comply with any applicable legislation relating to working with vulnerable person checks and maintain a record of this compliance.

- (b) FA will maintain a register of all approved Team Officials employed or engaged by Clubs for the Final Rounds.
- (c) The maximum number of Team Officials that can be registered for the Hahn Australia Cup are as follows:
 - (i) for the Preliminary Rounds, such number as prescribed by the relevant Member Federation; and
 - (ii) for the Final Rounds, Clubs may register the maximum number of Team Officials in each of the defined categories below:
 - (A) Coaching Roles:
 - (1) Head Coach (maximum x 1);

 - (C) Team Support Roles (maximum number for each, unless otherwise approved by FA in its sole and absolute discretion):
 - (1) Technical Director (maximum x 1);
 - (2) Football Manager/Coordinator (maximum x 3);
 - (3) Football/Performance Analyst (maximum x 3);
 - (4) Team Manager (maximum x 3);
 - (5) Media Manager (maximum x 1); and
 - (6) Equipment Manager (maximum x 3).
- (d) For the Final Rounds, Clubs may deregister a Team Official at any stage, at which point a replacement Team Official can then be registered in the same category in accordance with clause 14.2(a).
- (e) For each Final Round Match, each participating Club must register, and have present on match day, one (1) Head Coach, one (1) Assistant Coach and one (1) qualified Physiotherapist.

- (f) For the Final Rounds, with the exception of a Doctor, Physiotherapist and Massage Therapist only, a Team Official must not be registered with more than one Club at any time.

14.3 Team Official Qualifications

- (a) For the Preliminary Rounds, Team Officials must be qualified in accordance with the minimum standards prescribed by the relevant Member Federation.
- (b) For the Final Rounds, the following minimum standards apply for registration of Team Officials:
 - (i) for A-League Men Clubs, Team Officials must be qualified in accordance with the A-League Men Competition Regulations; and
 - (ii) for Member Federation Clubs:
 - (A) Team Officials must be qualified in accordance with the relevant rules applying to the league Competition to which that Club is currently registered and participating in;
 - (B) Doctor(s) must be qualified in accordance with the following minimum standards:

 - (3) certificate of currency evidencing Professional Indemnity Insurance (contractors only); and
 - (4) evidence of satisfactory completion of a basic cardiopulmonary resuscitation course within the immediately preceding twelve (12) months.

15. MATCH OFFICIALS

15.1 Match Official Appointments

- (a) For Preliminary Round Matches, the relevant Member Federation must appoint, as a minimum, the following Match Officials to each Hahn Australia Cup Match:
 - (i) Referee;
 - (ii) assistant referee 1; and
 - (iii) assistant referee 2, unless otherwise pre-approved by FA in writing in respect of a specific Hahn Australia Cup Match (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion).
- (b) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, FA will appoint, at a minimum, the following Match Officials to each Hahn Australia Cup Match:
 - (i) Referee;
 - (ii) assistant referee 1;
 - (iii) assistant referee 2;
 - (iv) fourth official;
 - (v) referees assessor; and
 - (vi) Match Commissioner.
- (c) FA may, but is not obliged to, utilise video assistance for referees in Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches in accordance with any directions or protocol as determined by the IFAB and FIFA from time to time, including without limitation, the appointment of a Video Assistant Referee and / or Assistant Video Assistant Referee(s).

15.2 Match Official Payments

For Preliminary Round Matches, Member Federations will be responsible for determining the fees, and payment process of the fees (which may include delegation to Clubs for payment of fees), for Match Officials.

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, FA will be responsible for the payment of all Match Official fees in accordance with the table in clause 15.2(c).
- (b) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and the Final Rounds, the scale of fees to be paid to Match Officials by FA is as follows (fees are exclusive of any superannuation payable, as outlined in the standard 'Match Officials Agreement', however inclusive of all relevant taxation):

Rd	Referee	Assistant Referee (x2)	Fourth Official	Assessor	Match Commissioner
Final Rounds Playoff	$1,250	$750	$365	$250	$250
R32	$1,250	$750	$365	$250	$250
R16	$1,650	$950	$470	$350	$250
QF	$1,650	$950	$470	$350	$350
SF	$1,650	$950	$470	$350	$350
Final	$2,400	$1,450	$800	$350	N/A

15.3 Match Official Apparel

- (a) For Preliminary Round Matches, Match Official apparel requirements will be prescribed by the relevant Member Federation unless otherwise determined by FA.
- (b) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, Match Officials must only wear the approved Match Official apparel as prescribed by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.

16. SUBSTITUTION RULES

- (a) For Preliminary Round Matches, a Club:
 - (i) subject to clause 16(a)(ii), may select up to five (5) Players as substitutes on the Starting List; and
 - (ii) may select one (1) further Player on the Starting List, where that Player is a nominated goalkeeper (i.e. a maximum of six (6) substitutes if a nominated goalkeeper is selected).
- (b) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, Clubs:
 - (i) must select at least five (5) Players as substitutes on the Starting List, including one (1) nominated goalkeeper; or
 - (ii) may select six (6) Players as substitutes on the Starting List, including one (1) nominated goalkeeper, if in the case of:
 - (A) all Clubs other than Wellington Phoenix or Auckland FC, at least two (2) Players selected on the Starting List are eligible to be called up for Australian National Team duty and are born on or after 1 January 2002; and
 - (B) Wellington Phoenix or Auckland FC, at least two (2) of Players selected on the Starting List are eligible to be called up for Australian National Team duty and/or NZ National Team duty and are born on or after 1 January 2002; or
 - (iii) may select seven (7) Players as substitutes on the Starting List, including one (1) nominated goalkeeper, if in the case of:

- (A) all Clubs other than Wellington Phoenix and Auckland FC, at least three (3) Players selected on the Starting List are eligible to be called up for Australian National Team duty and born on or after 1 January 2002 and
 - (B) Wellington Phoenix and Auckland FC, at least three (3) Players selected on the Starting List are eligible to be called up for Australian National Team duty and/or NZ National Team duty and are born on or after 1 January 2002.
- (c) Players recognised as goalkeepers need to be indicated as such by inserting the letters '(GK)' beside their Player's name on the Starting List.
- (d) The nominated substitute goalkeeper may only take the field in place of the starting goalkeeper and play as a goalkeeper.
- (e) For all Hahn Australia Cup Matches, the following Substitution Rules will apply:
 - (i) up to a maximum of five (5) Players (including a goalkeeper) may be replaced at one (1) of three (3) permitted substitution opportunities to make a substitution during a match, up until the conclusion of normal playing time, time lost or Extra Time, if played. The replacement Player must be one of the substitutes selected on the Starting List as directed above. For the avoidance of doubt, any:
 - (A) substitutions made during the half-time break will not count towards the three (3) permitted substitution opportunities during a match; and
 - (B) substitutions or substitution opportunities that have not been used at the conclusion of normal playing time or time lost, if played, such unused substitutions and substitution opportunities may be used during Extra Time; and
 - (ii) one (1) additional Player (outfield Player or goalkeeper) may be replaced and each team will have one (1) additional substitution opportunity during Extra Time of a match up until the conclusion of Extra Time (whether or not the team has already used the full number of permitted substitutes or substitution opportunities). The replacement Player must be one of the substitutes selected on the Starting List as directed above.
- (f) In addition to the above Substitution Rules, in Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Rounds matches only, each team will be permitted to use a maximum of one (1) concussion substitution in a match where a Player suffers a concussion, or suspected concussion, in accordance with the FA Concussion Policy and the Approved IFAB Concussion Substitute Protocol adopted by FA. For clarity, concussion substitutions will not count towards the permitted substitution opportunities during a match.
- (g) A substitution can be made upon a Match Official being notified (which must be the fourth official during the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches). A substitute Player must only enter the field of play:

- (i) after the Player being replaced has left the field of play;
- (ii) after he receives a signal from the Referee;
- (iii) at the half-way line and during a stoppage in the Hahn Australia Cup Match; and
- (iv) for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, to make a substitution the fourth official must be verbally notified of the Players involved in the substitution.

17. TECHNICAL AREA

- (a) A Technical Area must be provided at the Venue for each Club in all Hahn Australia Cup Matches.
- (b) For Preliminary Round Matches, a maximum of twelve (12) persons are permitted to occupy the Technical Area for each Club during a Hahn Australia Cup Match. This includes up to six (6) named substitutes as prescribed in clause 16(a) and up to six (6) registered Team Officials.
- (c) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, excluding the Hahn Australia Cup Final, a maximum of fourteen (14) persons are permitted to occupy the Technical Area for each Club during a Hahn Australia Cup Match. This includes the minimum of five (5) and maximum of seven (7) named substitutes prescribed in clause 16(b) above and up to seven (7) registered Team Officials.
- (d) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final only, a maximum of sixteen (16) persons are permitted to occupy the Technical Area for each Club. This includes the minimum of five (5) and maximum of seven (7) named substitutes prescribed in clause 16(b) above and up to nine (9) registered Team Officials.
- (e) The occupants of the Technical Area must be registered via the prescribed process and at all times Team Officials must display relevant identification and be listed on the Team Sheet or Starting List prior to the commencement of the Hahn Australia Cup Match.
- (f) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, the occupants of the Technical Area, not including Players selected as substitutes on the Starting List, must be identified to the fourth official prior to the commencement of the Hahn Australia Cup Match on the Officials on the Substitution Bench Form.

18. MATCH DAY FORMS AND RESULTS

- (a) For Preliminary Round Matches, match day forms will be prescribed as required by the relevant Member Federation in consultation with FA.
- (b) For Preliminary Round Matches:
 - (i) Member Federations will determine whether a nominated Match Official or the Home Club will be responsible for sending the result of the Hahn

- Australia Cup Match, with names of all Players competing, goal scorers and details of any cautions and/or expulsions, to the relevant Member Federation within thirty (30) minutes of the conclusion of the Hahn Australia Cup Match, or such other timeframe as mutually agreed by FA and the relevant Member Federation;
- (ii) Match Officials must submit original match day forms to the relevant Member Federation in accordance with the prescribed reporting process relevant to that Member Federation; and
 - (iii) where requested by FA, Member Federations will submit all match day forms received in accordance with clauses 18(b)(i) and 18(b)(ii) to FA within seven (7) days of receipt.
- (c) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, the following match day forms are to be used, in the form prescribed by FA:
- (i) Starting List;
 - (ii) Officials on the Substitution Bench Form;
 - (iii) Referees' Report;
 - (iv) Referees' Incident Report Form; and
 - (v) Match Commissioner Report Form.
- (d) The Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards provide additional requirements regarding match day forms applicable for Final Round Matches, which must be complied with by Hahn Australia Cup Participants.
- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, a Participant who is registered as both a Player and a Team Official for the purposes of participating in a Hahn Australia Cup Match must be listed on both the Starting List and the Officials on the Substitution Bench Form.

19. PLAYING STRIPS AND EQUIPMENT

19.1 Playing Strip Approval

- (a) Each Club must have:
- (i) one (1) 'light' and one (1) 'dark' design of its official jersey, shorts and socks for outfield Players which may also be classified as the Club's 'home' and 'away', unless otherwise approved in writing by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (ii) one (1) 'light' and one (1) 'dark' contrasting design of its official jersey, shorts and socks for Goalkeepers, (such kits to be worn consistently, meaning each of a Club's Goalkeepers for any single Hahn Australia Cup Match must all wear the same strip) which must not clash with the Club's home and away design for Players,
- (together, Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips).

- (b) Each Club must submit:
 - (i) for Preliminary Round Matches, the colour(s) of its Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips to the relevant Member Federation for approval before the deadline prescribed by the Member Federation; and
 - (ii) for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, its Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips to FA for approval, immediately after qualifying and not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the day scheduled for a Club's Round of 32 Hahn Australia Cup Match. All Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips submitted to FA under this clause 19.1(b)(ii) must include all details of the colours and the actual intended placement and sizing of all branding, Player surnames, short numbers and logos (including, without limitation, sponsor branding, the Club's official name and logo, and any other marks or emblems) as well as the position of the Hahn Australia Cup Badge. The Hahn Australia Cup Badge is round and approximately measures 74mm in diameter.
- (c) The decision whether to approve a Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip in accordance with clause 19.1(b) is a matter for the sole and absolute discretion of:
 - (i) the Member Federation, for Preliminary Round Matches; and
 - (ii) FA, for Final Round and Playoff Matches.
- (d) For Preliminary Round Matches, participating Clubs must only wear the Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip as approved by the relevant Member Federation in accordance with clause 19.1(b).
- (e) For the Final Rounds, Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, participating Clubs must only wear the Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip as approved by FA in accordance with clause 19.1(b).
- (f) Subject to clause 19.3(c), for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, Clubs must wear their approved Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip as prescribed, unless determined otherwise by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (g) For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding approval in accordance with clause 19.1(b), a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips must at all times comply with the requirements set out in these Regulations, including without limitation, clauses 26.8(b) and 26.9(a),
- (h) The current Hahn Australia Cup Winners may apply and display a gold Hahn Australia Cup logo on the right breast in the season following their title, with the words 'Winners 20XX' (replacing XX with the year in which the current Hahn Australia Cup Winners were the Hahn Australia Cup Winners) under the logo on any jersey which compromises part of a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip.

19.2 Playing Strips

- (a) Member Federation Clubs are not required, but may wish, to display Player surnames on the back of playing shirts and/or Player numbers on playing shorts (with any such surnames or numbers to appear consistently on all playing strips, or not at all).

- (b) A-League Men Clubs must display Player surnames on the back of playing shirts, and Player numbers on playing shorts.
- (c) The colour of the Match Officials shirt must be clearly distinguishable from the shirts worn by both Outfield Players and Goalkeepers.
- (d) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches:
 - (i) no Club is permitted to wear a Playing Strip other than its designated Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip in accordance with clause 19.1;
 - (ii) the Player's number is to appear on the back of the primary and alternate playing shirt in accordance with the Club's official 'Starting List';
 - (iii) the number appearing on the Player's shirt must be the same as the Player's squad number as specified in the Club's Hahn Australia Cup Player Roster; and
 - (iv) each Club must otherwise comply with the 2025 Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip Guidelines as promulgated by FA from time to time.

19.3 Playing Strip Allocations

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, FA will, following consultation with each Club, determine in its absolute and sole discretion, the Playing Strip allocations for each Hahn Australia Cup Match. Any Club that fails to adhere to Final Round Playing Strip allocations will be deemed in breach of these Regulations and may be subject to disciplinary sanctions as determined by FA.
- (b) Where the Playing Strips of the outfield Players, Goalkeepers and/or Match Officials are observed to be similar or alike on the day of a Hahn Australia Cup Match, the Match Officials must require the Away Club outfield Players and/or Goalkeeper/s to change their Playing Strip so that a clash of colours is not evident.
- (c) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final, where FA (in its absolute discretion) or the Match Officials determine a Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip colour clash exists, a toss of the coin shall determine which Club is entitled to choose between their home or away Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip. The winner of the coin toss shall be entitled to make the choice.

19.4 Player Equipment

- (a) Player equipment worn must comply with the Laws of the Game and FA Statutes.
- (b) In accordance with Law 4 of the Laws of the Game:
 - (i) the Compulsory Equipment (as set out in the Laws of the Game) worn by Players must not have any political, religious, national or personal slogans, statements, images or advertising other than the manufacturer logo (such manufacturer logo as approved by FA); and

- (ii) Players must not reveal undergarments showing political, religious, national or personal slogans, statements, images or advertising other than the manufacturer logo (such manufacturer logo as approved by FA).
- (c) All Clubs must adhere to, and comply with, all relevant player equipment rules as stipulated in the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards.
- (d) A Club must receive FA's written approval prior to its Players using electronic performance and tracking systems during a Match via the Mobile Communications Device Approval Form.

20. FIELD OF PLAY AND EQUIPMENT

20.1 Field of Play

- (a) The minimum and maximum dimensions of the field of play are defined as follows:
 - (i) For Preliminary Round Matches:
 - (A) Minimum: 90m long and 45m wide; and
 - (B) Maximum: 120m long and 90m wide.
 - (ii) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, in accordance with the Laws of the Game:
 - (A) Preferred: 105m long and 68m wide;
 - (B) Minimum: 100m long and 64m wide; and
 - (C) Maximum: 110m long and 75m wide.
- (b) Clubs must receive written approval from FA (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion) for sanctioning of Venues where field of play dimensions do not satisfy the dimensions set out in clause 20.1(a).
- (c) The playing surface for all Hahn Australia Cup Matches must be prepared and maintained to a reasonable standard as determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (d) For Preliminary Round Matches, any requirements as to pitch standards shall be determined by the relevant Member Federation.
- (e) The Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches may only be played on a pitch with a synthetic surface provided it has been constructed and maintained to at least a FIFA Quality Standard and have current FIFA certification, unless otherwise approved in writing by FA (which may be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion). Clubs may be required to submit a valid certificate, if requested by FA.

21. FACILITIES AND MATCH DAY EQUIPMENT

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, all Clubs must adhere to, and comply with, all relevant Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards.
- (b) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches:
 - (i) each Club must use the set of electronic assistant referees flags (Beep Flags) that will be provided by FA or the Member Federation for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and all Final Round Matches. On match day, the Home Club must ensure that the Match Officials are provided with the Beep Flags;
 - (ii) the Beep Flags will remain the property of FA or the Member Federation. Any damage caused to the flags will be borne by the Club. Repairs are only to be conducted when authorised by FA or the Member Federation in writing prior to any work being carried out; and
 - (iii) Each Club must use electronic substitution boards, which will be provided by FA or the Member Federation.

21.2 Match Ball Standards/ Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Ball

- (a) Football Australia will determine the allocation of Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Balls in its sole and absolute discretion, including variations to the quantities outlined in accordance with this clause 21.2.
- (b) For Preliminary Round Matches:
 - (i) Match Ball standards will be prescribed by the relevant Member Federation; and
 - (ii) where supplied and prescribed by FA and the relevant Member Federation, only the Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Ball must be used in the prescribed Hahn Australia Cup Matches (including for warm-up purposes).
- (c) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, only the Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Ball:
 - (i) is to be used in Hahn Australia Cup Matches; and
 - (ii) is to be used by participating Clubs for warm-up purposes.
- (d) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches, FA will determine the match ball allocation.
- (e) Each Club participating in the Final Rounds will receive a minimum of twenty (20) Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Balls for warm-up purposes.
- (f) In addition to the Match Balls provided under clause 21.2(e), the Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Ball will be supplied and prescribed for match use as follows:
 - (i) For the Round of 32, the Home Club will receive ten (10) brand new match balls; and

- (ii) For the Round of 16 onwards, the Home Club will receive:
 - (A) Ten (10) match balls, where the Home Club has not previously hosted a match;
 - (B) Four (4) match balls, where the Home Club has previously hosted a match. The Home Club must provide an additional six (6) Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Balls which must be in good condition.
- (g) For the Cup Final, FA will determine match ball allocation.

22. SCHEDULING AND VENUE STANDARDS

22.1 Scheduling

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches, the 10th and 11th placed A-League Men Club at the conclusion of the 2024/25 A-League Men Season will be, or (in the case that FA selects the Venue in accordance with clause 22.2(g)) deemed to be, the Home Club.
- (b) Subject to clauses 22.1(c) and (d), for Final Round Matches other than the Hahn Australia Cup Final, the Home Club for each Hahn Australia Cup Match will be determined as follows:
 - (i) where Hahn Australia Cup Matches involve only Member Federation Clubs, the first drawn Club;
 - (ii) where Hahn Australia Cup Matches involve a Member Federation Club and an A-League Men Club, the Member Federation Club; and
 - (iii) subject to clause 22.1(c), where Hahn Australia Cup Matches involve only A-League Men Clubs, the first drawn Club.
- (c) In all instances, Wellington Phoenix FC and Auckland FC will be deemed to be the Away Club, irrespective of whether either or both of those Clubs are the first drawn Club pursuant to clause 22.1(b)(iii) above, except where Wellington Phoenix FC and Auckland FC are drawn to play each other, in which case, the first drawn Club will be the Home Club.
- (d) Notwithstanding clause 22.1(b), the determination of the Home Club is subject at all times to the proposed host Venue complying with the requirements of clause 22.2.
- (e) FA may select the Venues for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches at its sole and absolute discretion by providing reasonable notice to the relevant Clubs. Such a decision to select the Venue will be made based on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, venue availability, broadcast requirements, security, commercial, marketing, financial and 'growth of the game' considerations.
- (f) The selection of the Venue for the Hahn Australia Cup Final will be at the sole and absolute discretion of FA. Such a decision to allocate the Venue will be made based on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, venue availability, broadcast requirements, security, commercial, marketing and financial considerations.

22.2 Venues

- (a) Subject to clause 22.2(h), the Home Club is responsible for all applicable Venue hosting costs (including, without limitation, broadcast, security and ancillary costs (lights, water, power, staff etc.)) and will receive all related match day revenue, other than in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup Final (as prescribed in clause 8.5(b)).
- (b) Subject to clause 22.1(e), for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and all Final Round Matches, each Club must:
 - (i) propose a host Venue or Venues in accordance with the requirements of the prescribed Hahn Australia Cup Club Registration Form, complying with any and all stipulated deadlines notified by FA from time to time and which fall within the following parameters:
 - (A) a Member Federation Club must:
 - (1) not nominate a Venue with a prescribed capacity in excess of 15,000 spectators unless prior written approval is provided by FA in its sole and absolute discretion;
 - (2) submit a valid Lux certificate for all nominated Venues (being not more than two (2) years old); and
 - (3) submit a statement of Venue availability from the Venue operator or owner; and
 - (B) an A-League Men Club must nominate either its A-League Men home venue or an alternate Venue with a prescribed capacity not exceeding 15,000 spectators unless approved otherwise by FA in writing, with such approval to be granted or withheld by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
 - (C) prior to a relevant draw in the Final Rounds Draw Process, or, if applicable, the Final Rounds Playoff Matches, have obtained FA approval (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion) in writing, and complying with any and all stipulated deadlines notified by FA from time to time, in order to host a Hahn Australia Cup Match at a nominated Venue.
 - (c) For the sake of clarity, where an A-League Men Club fails to nominate a venue prior to the stipulated deadline, as notified by FA from time to time, its A-League Men home venue will be used.
 - (d) In accordance with the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards, each Venue must meet the standard for the applicable category below as prescribed by FA:
 - (i) Feature Broadcast Hahn Australia Cup Matches;
 - (ii) broadcast Hahn Australia Cup Matches that involve an A-League Men Club; or

- (iii) broadcast Hahn Australia Cup Matches that involve only Member Federation Clubs.
- (e) FA has the power to require any Hahn Australia Cup Match to be played on an alternate date or at an alternative Venue (including, without limitation, a different city or locality) if FA considers it appropriate and necessary (as determined in FA's sole and absolute discretion). No money or other compensation shall be payable in any circumstances whatsoever relating to any change of Venue.
- (f) If requested by FA or the Away Club, the Home Club must use best endeavours to provide the Away Club with one (1) x sixty (60) minute familiarisation session on the field of play of the host Venue the day before a Hahn Australia Cup Match.
- (g) For Final Round Playoff Matches only, if FA selects the Venue in accordance with clause 22.1(e), then FA will be responsible for all Home Club hosting rights and obligations (including, but not limited to, the Home Club rights and obligations in clauses 22.2, 26.10(a), 26.14(e) and 26.13(a)), unless FA determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to delegate any such rights or obligations back to the relevant Home Club.
- (h) For Final Round Matches only, where a Home Club is a Member Federation Club of Football Northern Territory, then Football Northern Territory will be responsible for all Home Club hosting rights and obligations (including, but not limited to, the Home Club rights and obligations in clauses 22.2, 26.10(a), 26.14(e) and 26.13(a)), unless Football Northern Territory determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to delegate any such rights or obligations back to the relevant Home Club.

23. SPECTATORS AND SECURITY

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, the Home Club and Member Federation (if applicable) must comply with the Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards.
- (b) FA may sanction a Club (such sanction may include but is not limited to, suspension or expulsion from the Hahn Australia Cup) as a result of spectator behaviour or security issues including:
 - (i) non-compliance with the Hahn Australia Cup Minimum Security Standards;
 - (ii) breaches of the National Code of Conduct and Ethics relating to supporter and spectator behaviour (including without limitation, non-compliance with the Spectator Code of Behaviour); and/or
 - (iii) any other conduct which in the opinion of FA (such opinion determined in FA's sole and absolute discretion) injures the reputation of FA, a Member Federation, football or the Hahn Australia Cup.

24. DISCIPLINARY RULES

24.1 General Disciplinary Rules

- (a) The Australia Cup Disciplinary Rules form part of the FA Statutes and are outlined in the National Disciplinary Regulations, including the applicable schedule to the National Disciplinary Regulations.
- (b) The Australia Cup Disciplinary Rules are set by FA as the Competition Administrator of the Hahn Australia Cup. In accordance with the National Disciplinary Regulations, the National Disciplinary Regulations, which include the Australia Cup Disciplinary Rules, may be supplemented, but not varied, by Supplementary Regulations.

24.2 Preliminary Rounds Disciplinary Rules and Member Federations

- (c) In accordance with clause 5.2 and subject to clauses 24(b) and 24(d), Member Federations must administer the disciplinary procedures for the Preliminary Rounds in accordance with the Australia Cup Disciplinary Rules and these Regulations, both of which are applicable to the Preliminary Rounds.
- (d) FA reserves the right to require the Member Federation to enforce the disciplinary procedures in relation to the Preliminary Rounds at any time in its sole and absolute discretion.

25. OFFICIAL TITLE AND MARKS

25.1 Hahn Australia Cup Brand Manual

All Clubs must comply with the Hahn Australia Cup Brand Manual or Guidelines, as provided by FA from time to time, in relation to the use and reproduction of the Hahn Australia Cup Logo, Official Title and other Hahn Australia Cup Marks.

25.2 Official Title and Naming Conventions

- (a) The competition will be called the “Hahn Australia Cup” and marketed under the name “Hahn Australia Cup” (Official Title) or under any other name as notified by FA from time to time.
- (b) At a minimum, each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must include the Official Title prominently on all materials produced by or on behalf of it relating to the Hahn Australia Cup, (including, but not limited to, tickets, programmes, press releases and (where possible) scoreboard displays) and (where possible) will refer to the Official Title at least once over (any) public address system operating on the day of each Hahn Australia Cup Match. Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must comply with such other directions from FA from time to time in relation to naming conventions and promotional materials.
- (c) The official names and terms that must be used by Hahn Australia Cup Participants in any official correspondence in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup are as follows:
 - (i) Generic Terms:
 - (A) Hahn Australia Cup;
 - (B) Hahn Australia Cup Preliminary Rounds;

25.3 Hahn Australia Cup Marks

- (a) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant acknowledges that:
 - (i) FA is the owner of the Hahn Australia Cup Marks and that all rights and goodwill in and in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup Marks are vested in FA; and
 - (ii) the Hahn Australia Cup Marks may include branding of the Hahn Australia Cup Naming Rights Partner from time to time.
- (b) To ensure consistency in the “look and feel” of the entire Hahn Australia Cup and to prevent and/or arrest any instances of Hahn Australia Cup-related Ambush Marketing by third parties, each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must ensure that neither itself, nor any third party contracted to a Hahn Australia Cup Participant, develops, uses, registers, adopts, or creates any mark, logo or symbol which refers to the Hahn Australia Cup or any phase of the Hahn Australia Cup, or which is, in FA’s reasonable opinion, confusingly similar to, is a colourable imitation of, is a derivation of, or which unfairly competes with the Hahn Australia Cup Marks.
- (c) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant undertakes not to oppose, and to ensure that none of its contracted third parties oppose, any of the trademark or copyright applications filed by FA (or its nominees or licensees) in respect of the Hahn Australia Cup Marks, or seek to cancel any such registrations held by FA.

25.4 Use of Hahn Australia Cup Marks

- (a) Subject to clause 25.4(b), each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must not use, nor permit any third party to use, the Hahn Australia Cup Marks other than with FA’s prior written approval (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA’s sole and absolute discretion), on such terms as specified by FA. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes third party Club kit suppliers seeking to produce Club merchandise bearing Hahn Australia Cup Marks for commercial or retail purposes.
- (b) FA grants each Member Federation and Club a non-exclusive royalty free license to use the Hahn Australia Cup Logo online and in promotional materials (excluding apparel or merchandise) produced by or on behalf of the Hahn Australia Cup Participant in relation to its participation in the Hahn Australia Cup, provided that such use is:
 - (i) for editorial purposes only and is not used in a commercial context or in association with, or in proximity to, the name and/or logo of any commercial or corporate entity, which might give rise to an association between those entities and the Hahn Australia Cup without FA's prior written approval (in its sole and absolute discretion); and

- (ii) in accordance with these Regulations and the Hahn Australia Cup Brand Manual.

25.5 Club Marks

- (a) Each Club grants to FA a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive royalty free licence to use their Club Marks in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup, including for marketing and promotional purposes and the exploitation of Commercial Rights.
- (b) Clubs that qualify for the Round of 32 must, within 14 days of receiving confirmation of qualification from the relevant Member Federation (or FA in the case of the Final Rounds Playoffs), provide FA with a high-resolution transparent version of the Club's logo in the manner prescribed by FA from time to time.
- (c) FA must not apply any variations of modifications to the official version of the Club Marks and must not use any Club Marks in any manner which:
 - (i) would imply that any Club endorses a product or brand of any commercial entity, including any Hahn Australia Cup Partner;
 - (ii) is deceptive or misleading;
 - (iii) compromises or reflects unfavourably upon the good name, goodwill, reputation, political or religious impartiality and image of the Club; or
 - (iv) might jeopardise or limit the Club's proprietary interests in the Club Mark.

26. COMMERCIAL

26.1 Ownership of Commercial Rights

- (a) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant acknowledges that, subject to the terms and conditions set out in these Regulations:
 - (i) all Commercial Rights in respect of the Hahn Australia Cup whether currently existing or created in the future are exclusively and solely owned and controlled by FA;
 - (ii) FA is the exclusive owner of all current and future intellectual property rights in the Hahn Australia Cup; and
 - (iii) any use of the aforementioned rights requires FA's prior written consent in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (b) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must not grant any person the rights referred to in clause 26.1(a).

26.2 Communication

FA have the right to communicate directly with all Hahn Australia Cup Clubs for the purpose of distributing information relating to the administration of the Hahn Australia Cup competition, including, but not limited to, information relating to the Commercial Rights and obligations of FA and Official Hahn Australia Cup Partners. Clubs must provide a minimum of one (1) direct contact, or as otherwise prescribed by FA from time to time.

26.3 Exploitation of Commercial Rights

Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must fully co-operate with FA and all Hahn Australia Cup Partners in the exploitation and activation of the Commercial Rights. To that end, each Hahn Australia Cup Participant must provide FA and the Hahn Australia Cup Partners access to the Venue free of charge to facilitate exploitation of the Commercial Rights, including for the purpose of exploiting the Media Rights.

26.4 Media Rights

FA has the sole and exclusive right to exploit any and all Media Rights in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup. No Hahn Australia Cup Participant or any third party may to any extent whatsoever exploit any Media Rights or parts thereof in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup, without FA's prior written approval in its sole and absolute discretion.

26.5 Data Rights

FA has the sole and exclusive right to exploit any and all Hahn Australia Cup Data Rights. No Hahn Australia Cup Participant or any third party may to any extent whatsoever exploit any Hahn Australia Cup Data Rights or parts thereof, without FA's prior written approval in its sole and absolute discretion.

26.6 Image Rights

FA and the Hahn Australia Cup Partners have the right to use in or on any medium the records, names and images of each Hahn Australia Cup Participant, including still photographs, audio and audio/visual images which may be generated from the Hahn Australia Cup Participant's participation in the Hahn Australia Cup provided that such use will not reasonably be considered to constitute a personal endorsement by the Hahn Australia Cup Participant of any product or service.

26.7 Hahn Australia Cup Partner Entitlements

- (a) Clubs and Member Federations must comply with Hahn Australia Cup corporate hospitality and ticketing requirements for FA and Hahn Australia Cup Partners as prescribed by FA from time to time.
- (b) FA reserves the right for Hahn Australia Cup Partners to activate at any Hahn Australia Cup Matches including in precinct pre-match and/or on the field of play pre-match and at half-time.

- (c) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final, each Club must make at least three (3) of its Players available for one (1) player appearance in the seven (7) days preceding the Hahn Australia Cup Final, at such place and time nominated by FA.
- (d) FA may issue more detailed rules and regulations regarding the provision of Hahn Australia Cup Partner entitlements (including, but not limited to, in relation to, broadcasting, perimeter board signage, media backdrops, centre circle banners, side of goal mats, substitute/added time boards, tickets and match programmes) and the Clubs and Member Federations must comply with such rules and regulations as amended from time to time by FA.

26.8 Sponsor Branding and Use of Hahn Australia Cup Logo on Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips

- (a) Subject to this clause 26.8, a Club may display sponsor branding on its Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips.
- (b) Clubs and Member Federations must not at any time display at a Venue any sponsor branding on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip of any person that in FA's reasonable opinion competes with the businesses, products or services within the exclusive category (as defined in Item 1 of Schedule D) granted to the Hahn Australia Cup Naming Rights Partner.
- (c) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches:
 - (i) all participating Member Federation Clubs must:
 - (A) display the Hahn Australia Cup Logo on the front right chest where possible, otherwise on the front left chest or shirt sleeve, of both their light and dark playing shirts pending written approval from FA; and
 - (B) not display any sponsor branding on Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips that, in FA's reasonable opinion, competes with the Official Broadcaster, the Hahn Australia Cup Naming Rights Partner or the respective businesses, products or services within the Hahn Australia Cup Exclusive Sponsor Categories; and
 - (ii) all participating A-League Men Clubs must:
 - (A) display the Hahn Australia Cup Logo on both their light and dark playing shirts in the prescribed location instead of the A-League Men Competition Logo appears in respect of the A-League Men;
 - (B) otherwise comply with A-League Men Competition Licensing & Merchandise Policies and Procedures in respect of their participation in the Hahn Australia Cup; and
 - (C) not display any sponsor branding on Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips that in FA's reasonable opinion competes with the Official Broadcaster, the Hahn Australia Cup Naming Rights Partner or the respective businesses, products or services within the Hahn Australia Cup Exclusive Sponsor Categories.

- (d) FA will provide Clubs a prescribed number of Hahn Australia Cup Logo badges for application on Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strips for Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches. If requested by Clubs, additional Hahn Australia Cup Logo badges may be sourced from FA and/or FA's official licensee for use on Club merchandise.

26.9 Signage, Branding and Activations

- (a) Clubs and Member Federations must not at any time display any signage or branding (including on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip) at a Venue or conduct, or permit a third party to conduct, any activation or promotional activity at a Venue that in FA's reasonable opinion competes with the respective businesses, products or services within the exclusive category granted (as defined in Schedule K) to a Hahn Australia Cup Partner.
- (b) For Preliminary Round Matches:
 - (i) subject to clauses 26.9(a) and 26.9(b)(ii), Clubs and Member Federations have the right to display signage and conduct, or permit a third party to conduct, any activation or promotional activity at a Venue;
 - (A) Home Clubs must display the official Hahn Australia Cup banner:
 - (B) at the half-way point of the eastern sideline, where such banner is provided by FA; and
 - (C) behind the goals at the northern and southern sideline where prescribed by FA from time to time.
- (c) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches (excluding the Hahn Australia Cup Final):
 - (i) subject to clause 26.9(c)(ii), FA retains all field of play signage, including but not limited to all fixed signage, LED, 3D mats, back of goal signage and side of goal signage (Field of Play Signage), at the Venue;
 - (ii) subject to clauses 26.9(d) and 26.9(e), the Home Club is entitled to the Field of Play Signage inventory set out in Event and Match Day Standards; and
 - (iii) Clubs must not display any signage or branding (including on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip) at a Venue or conduct, or permit a third party to conduct, any activation or promotional activity at a Venue unless the Club has received FA's prior written approval to do so (such approval to be granted or withheld in FA's sole and absolute discretion) not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the day fixed for playing the Club's next home Hahn Australia Cup Match.
- (d) In respect of Member Federation Clubs and Member Federations, without limiting FA's right to approve under clause 26.9(c), FA will not provide its approval under clause 26.9(c) if, in FA's opinion, such signage, branding or activity competes with:
 - (i) the Official Broadcaster or the respective businesses, products or services within the Hahn Australia Cup Exclusive Sponsor Categories; or

- (ii) any FA related football program, product or service.
- (e) In respect of A-League Men Clubs, without limiting FA's right to approve under clause 26.9(c), FA will not provide its approval under clause 26.9(c) if, in FA's reasonable opinion, such signage, branding or activity competes with:
 - (i) the Official Broadcaster or the respective businesses, products or services within the Hahn Australia Cup Exclusive Sponsor Categories; or
 - (ii) any FA related football program, product or service.
- (f) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final, FA retains all signage and activation rights at the Venue.
- (g) For all Hahn Australia Cup Matches, FA retains all rights to brand and/or exploit:
 - (i) ball persons;
 - (ii) substitution boards;
 - (iii) substitution bibs;
 - (iv) 'Match Officials';
 - (v) 'Technical Areas';
 - (vi) dressing rooms;
 - (vii) player tunnel;
 - (viii) stretcher bearers;
 - (ix) ball plinth;
 - (x) ball tee;
 - (xi) mascots;
 - (xii) coin toss;
 - (xiii) Match ball presenter;
 - (xiv) 'big TV screen';
 - (xv) the areas behind or around goals; and
 - (xvi) centre circle.

26.10 Hospitality

- (a) Subject to clauses 22.2(h) and 26.7(a) the Home Club has the sole and exclusive right to exploit any and all Hospitality Rights for Preliminary Round Matches, Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches, excluding the Hahn Australia Cup Final.
- (a) FA has the sole and exclusive right to exploit any and all Hospitality Rights for the Hahn Australia Cup Final.

26.11 Betting Operators

- (a) A Hahn Australia Cup Participant must not enter into an agreement in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup with a Sports Betting Operator or any other body who offers betting or gambling related products or services (whether licensed to provide such products or services in Australia or overseas or otherwise) without obtaining FA's prior written consent, which may be withheld by FA in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (b) Without limiting FA's discretion under clause 26.11(a), FA will not provide its consent under clause 26.11(a) for a Hahn Australia Cup Participant to enter into a proposed agreement with a body who offers betting or gambling related products or services which are prohibited in Australia, or a Sports Betting Operator where:
 - (i) the Sports Betting Operator does not have a product fee and integrity agreement with FA; or
 - (A) the proposed agreement between the Hahn Australia Cup Participant and the Sports Betting Operator would:
 - (B) permit the Sports Betting Operator to use or associate with the Hahn Australia Cup Logo or Hahn Australia Cup Data;
 - (C) permit the Sports Betting Operator to use the image of, or directly associate with, any Player and/or Official;
 - (D) permit the display of any branding featuring the Sports Betting Operator on the apparel of any Player or Official, including Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip, on and off-field apparel and team kit and equipment;
 - (E) permit the display of any branding featuring the Sports Betting Operator in any player and match official areas, including team benches, tunnels and changing rooms;
 - (F) grant the Sports Betting Operator naming rights to any Hahn Australia Cup Match or other Club related event;
 - (G) permit the display of any branding featuring the Sports Betting Operator on any Club media backdrop;
 - (H) permit the communication of any odds within a Venue. For avoidance of doubt, this includes ground announcements as well as vision screens and signage;
 - (I) permit the display of any odds on any Club related digital property, including the Club's official website or application; permit the display of the name or branding of more than one Sports Betting Operator at a Hahn Australia Cup Match or other Club related event;
 - (J) permit the display of the name or branding of a Sports Betting Operator in breach of any broadcasting code of practice, including the display of betting advertising by means of virtual broadcast signage;

- (K) permit the display of the name or branding of more than one Sports Betting Operator at a Match or other Club related event (not including any Sports Betting Operator sponsor appointed by FA), including any arrangement where the Club enters into an agreement (or more than one agreement) with an entity (or entities) that would have the effect of displaying the name or branding of more than Sports Betting Operator;
- (L) grant the Sports Betting Operator rights in respect of the AFC Club Competitions; or
- (M) permit the Sports Betting Operator to create a Club or Member Federation dedicated website.

26.12 Ambush Marketing

- (a) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant acknowledges that the commercial value of the Hahn Australia Cup (and the value of any commercial rights to the Hahn Australia Cup) may be substantially diminished by Ambush Marketing.
- (b) Each Member Federation and Club must ensure that no person or entity (incorporated or otherwise), including any third party contracted to a Member Federation and/or a Club, associates their name, brand, product or service with the Hahn Australia Cup, including the Hahn Australia Cup Logo, through advertising, marketing, promotional activities and/or any other means which might give rise to an association between that person or entity and the Hahn Australia Cup without FA's prior written approval in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (c) Following written notification by FA of any Ambush Marketing activity or any further violation by any Member Federation and/or Club, or any third party contracted to a Member Federation and/or a Club, each Member Federation and/or Club will ensure, and take all measures required by FA to ensure, that the relevant party immediately ceases and desists from such activity and that such Hahn Australia Cup Participant or third party provides FA with written undertakings agreeing to immediately cease and desist from, and in the future to refrain from, any Ambush Marketing activity or further violation of these Regulations. This provision also applies when the Ambush Marketing activity is conducted by the Hahn Australia Cup Participant or contracted third party itself or by any of its affiliated or group companies.
- (d) All Hahn Australia Cup Participants shall immediately notify FA, in writing, of any Ambush Marketing that they become aware of.

26.13 Match Balls for promotional activities

Each Club must use all reasonable efforts to use only the Official Hahn Australia Cup Match Ball in its promotional and advertising activities in relation to the Hahn Australia Cup and ensure that the logo of the Hahn Australia Cup match ball supplier featured on the ball is not obscured, altered or deleted when used in any such Club promotions or advertising.

26.14 Clubs and Member Federation Rights

- (a) Nothing in this clause 26 shall be construed or interpreted so as to prevent or restrict Clubs and Member Federations, subject to applicable FIFA, FA or other rules or regulations or decisions of FA, from entering into commercial arrangements in relation to Hahn Australia Cup Matches that do not in FA's reasonable opinion conflict with the obligations of Hahn Australia Cup Participants as set out in these Regulations (and in any other rules or regulations issued by FA).
- (b) Notwithstanding clauses 26.8 and 26.9, Clubs and Member Federations may display at a Venue for the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Round Matches signage or branding (including on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip) of a person who manufactures, promotes, distributes, sells or supplies products in the alcoholic beverage category (as defined in Item 2 of Schedule D) (Alcohol Sponsor) if that person has made a $250,000 net cash contribution to the Club for the rights and has an expiry date of no later than 1 November 2025.
- (c) Clause 26.9 does not prevent Clubs and Member Federations from:
 - (i) selling pourage rights at a Venue to an Alcohol Sponsor;
 - (ii) permitting the recognition of the holder of the pourage rights at a Venue, provided that such recognition is limited to branding on equipment (such as fridges and taps) required as part of a reasonable pourage agreement; or
 - (iii) displaying signage or branding (including on a Club's Hahn Australia Cup Playing Strip) at a Venue of a social club, pub, hotel, restaurant, leagues or other similar club or licensed venue, provided that such signage or branding does not name any products or services in the alcoholic beverage category (as defined in Item 3 of Schedule D).
- (e) If approved by FA in writing (in its sole and absolute discretion), Home Clubs (or Football Northern Territory, subject to clause 22.2(h)) may conduct sponsorship activations at Preliminary Round and Final Round Matches including in precinct pre-match and/or on the field of play pre-match and at half-time.

26.15 Financial reporting

- (a) For the Final Rounds Playoff Matches and Final Rounds, Home Clubs (or Football Northern Territory, subject to subject to clause 22.2(h)) must complete the Financial Reporting Form for each Hahn Australia Cup Match hosted by the Club, and return all completed Forms to FA no later than thirty (30) days from the date on which the Club is eliminated from the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (b) Any information provided to FA under clause 26.15(a) will remain confidential to FA, and be used for the FA's internal reporting and review processes only. FA may impose disciplinary sanctions against a Hahn Australia Cup Participant found to have breached the financial reporting obligations in 26.15(a).

27. MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS

27.1 General

- (a) FA is solely responsible for handling all media enquiries that relate to FA or the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (b) Each Hahn Australia Cup Participant will:
 - (i) handle all media enquiries that relate to it specifically and co-operate with the media to promote Hahn Australia Cup Matches; and
 - (ii) if reasonably requested by FA, produce regular and accurate, up to date content for display on the Hahn Australia Cup website and in other communications.
- (c) Each Member Federation must assist, and must ensure that each Club assists, to the best possible extent, FA, and accredited media representatives in their media activities during the Hahn Australia Cup.
- (d) If required by FA, the Home Club must nominate a Club Official to communicate Hahn Australia Cup Match scores to FA or such other person as nominated by FA.
- (e) For the Final Rounds, all Member Federations and participating Clubs must link the Hahn Australia Cup website (www.australiacup.com.au) to its own website.
- (f) Where a Member Federation or Club receives a request from any television, radio or online broadcaster seeking to cover, commentate on, or otherwise broadcast, any aspect of a Hahn Australia Cup Match (including news footage), that Member Federation or Club must notify FA in writing of the request. FA may, in its sole and absolute discretion, approve or disapprove this request.

27.2 Media Accreditation

- (a) An accreditation is physical proof of access entitlements to a zone within a Venue during a Hahn Australia Cup Match. It is personal and non-transferable and does not grant the pass holder access to a viewing seat.
- (b) It is the responsibility of the Home Club to ensure compliance with the relevant accreditation standards as outlined in the Hahn Australia Cup Event and Match Day Standards.
- (c) FA has the right to revoke accreditation for any reason in its sole and absolute discretion.

27.3 Media Backdrops

Unless otherwise approved by FA in writing, Clubs and Member Federations must use the Official Hahn Australia Cup Media Backdrop in respect of all Hahn Australia Cup media engagements.

27.4 Media Access

- (a) Only those accredited media personnel of the Official Broadcaster and Radio Broadcaster(s) are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field of play and the spectators during Hahn Australia Cup Matches.
- (b) The Home Club must ensure that FA, the Official Broadcaster and Radio Broadcaster(s) have free access to the Venue from two (2) days prior to the Hahn Australia Cup Match until one (1) day after the Hahn Australia Cup Match.

27.5 Interviews

- (a) For Preliminary Round Matches, Clubs must comply with any reasonable request for interview by FA, the Official Broadcaster and/or Radio Broadcaster(s).
- (b) For Final Round Matches:
 - (i) Clubs who conduct and publish an interview (pre-match or post-match) with any club player and/or coaching staff, must conduct and publish said interview in front of the official Hahn Australia Cup Media Backdrop where such backdrop is provided by FA;
 - (ii) Clubs must have their Head Coach and one (1) starting Player available from at least one (1) day before each Hahn Australia Cup Match for either a press conference, 'flash' interview and/or teleconference of up to fifteen (15) minutes;
 - (iii) Clubs must have an Assistant Coach and/or Player available for an interview during the half-time break of each Hahn Australia Cup Match;
 - (iv) Clubs must have their Head Coach available for an interview with the Official Broadcaster at any stage during broadcast of Hahn Australia Cup Matches;
 - (v) Clubs must have the Player of the Match (or as otherwise named) available for an interview with FA, the Official Broadcaster and/or Radio Broadcaster within fifteen (15) minutes following the final whistle;
 - (vi) Clubs must make available for interview any Player(s) chosen by the Official Broadcaster immediately following the conclusion of each Hahn Australia Cup Match. Clubs will be informed of interview requirements in the final minutes of Hahn Australia Cup Matches;
 - (vii) during the two (2) days prior to a Hahn Australia Cup Match, any Official Training Session must be open to the media for not less than fifteen (15) minutes; and
 - (viii) a post-match press conference and/or media opportunity must be provided at the host Venue not later than fifteen (15) minutes following the conclusion of each Hahn Australia Cup Match. The Head Coach and one (1) starting Player from each of the participating Clubs are required to participate in any post-match press conference or media opportunity.
- (c) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final:

- (i) each Club must make their captain and Head Coach available for interview at an official Hahn Australia Cup Final press conference as requested by FA in the seven (7) days preceding the Hahn Australia Cup Final. The location and time of the press conference is to be determined by FA in its sole and absolute discretion; and
- (ii) each Club must comply with any reasonable request by FA, the Official Broadcaster, or Hahn Australia Cup Naming Rights Partner to participate in any interview or content piece related to the Hahn Australia Cup Final.

27.6 Mixed Zone

- (a) For the Hahn Australia Cup Final:
 - (i) a Mixed Zone will be set up by FA and be in operation at the conclusion of the Hahn Australia Cup Final; and
 - (ii) all Players and Team Officials must enter the Mixed Zone after leaving the team dressing room. Speaking with the media in the Mixed Zone is not compulsory however it is advised that Players and Team Officials give brief interviews if requested.

27.7 Photographers

- (a) For Final Round Matches:
 - (i) Photographers at all times must abide by FA's terms of accreditation and Event and Match Day Standards;
 - (A) Photographers must sign in on the official Hahn Australia Cup Photography Bib Register upon arrival at the Venue, surrender their accreditation pass and collect a bib. Upon return of that bib at the conclusion of each Hahn Australia Cup Match, the photographer will have their accreditation pass returned; and
 - (ii) the Home Club must appoint a liaison to ensure photographers comply with this clause 27.7.

28. DATA COLLECTION

28.1 Access and Facilities

- (a) The Home Club must ensure that two (2) nominated data collectors of the Data Collection Partner (Official Data Collectors) have free access to the Venue at least one (1) hour before and for the duration of each Hahn Australia Cup Match for the purpose of collecting and collating the Hahn Australia Cup Data;
- (b) The Home Club will provide the Official Data Collectors with the following facilities and materials in respect to each Hahn Australia Cup Match:
 - (i) access to:
 - (A) the press box; or

- (B) if the Venue does not have a press box, an alternative priority position with premium view;
 - (ii) where available, access to any wireless or wired internet connections (or such other connectivity) provided at the Venue without charge; and
 - (iii) where requested, access to the Starting Lists at least 30 minutes before the commencement of the Hahn Australia Cup Match,
- in order to facilitate the collection and collation of the Hahn Australia Cup Data.

28.2 Rights Protection Activities

The Home Club must use reasonable endeavours to ensure that, in respect of all Hahn Australia Cup Matches, restrictions are imposed on the unauthorised collection of data in the Venue and the dissemination of such data, including through:

- (a) ticketing terms and conditions (where applicable);
- (b) the Venue's terms of admission; and
- (c) where requested by FA, the deployment of rights protection officers to monitor and enforce against any unauthorised data recording activities.

28.3 General

Without limiting the above, each Member Federation must assist, and must ensure that each Club assists, to the best possible extent, FA, the Data Collection Partner and the Official Data Collectors in the exploitation of the Hahn Australia Cup Data Rights.
