Reportable Incidents

For matches which are on Squadi, Send Off Reports and Incident Reports are to be submitted via Squadi in the first instance. If a NNSWF-sanctioned match is not on Squadi (trial matches, Australia Cup matches etc.), the following forms should be completed for reportable incidents. If the match is sanctioned by FNSW, incidents are to be reported through Dribl. NNSWF may also request that subsequently to completing a report on Squadi an additional report from the links below be completed.

Referee Feedback

Gaining feedback from referees can assist NNSWF in ensuring that future matchdays are positive experiences for all referees.

Feedback on the adherence of Club's to Zero Tolerance protocols, player, team official and spectator behaviour is also valuable information for the future allocation of referees. The following form can be completed to convey this information:

Club Feedback

Club feedback assists the NNSWF referees department in the referee allocation process, and for coaching purposes. Information and evidence regarding correct or incorrect decision making will be reviewed and considered. Details of incidents and video footage can then be used for coaching purposes to highlight the decision-making process and expected decision in each situation, allowing for greater future consistency across NNSWF competitions.
