(a) Youth Competitions:

(i) 18 Years.

(ii) 16 Years.

(iii) 15 Years.

(iv) 14 Years.

(v) 13 Years.

(b) Any club who is unable to field one of the required teams, will be permitted to continue in the PYL Competition for one season, but will be required to field all teams in the following season.

(c) Any club who is unable to field at least 4 of the 5 required teams in the Competition may not be permitted to participate with the exception of 3.1 (d)

(d) Northern NSW Football reserves the right to permit clubs to remain in the PYL Competitions on the basis that:

- (i) Fielding the remaining teams provides a better competition experience for the remaining participants.
- (ii) For 2026, that a regionally based club is adding extra teams previously not required in youth competitions.

3.2. The Premier Youth League Boy's is comprised of approximately 25 Clubs across the following Competitions:

(a) League Season.

(b) PYL Boy's Cup.

3.3. Competition Points for each Competition will be awarded in accordance with the 2026 Premier Competition Regulations unless otherwise specified.

4. PYL BOY'S CUP

4.1. The PYL Boy's Cup will run as follows:

4.2. Each age group will have its own individual competition

4.3. All teams in each age group will play 1 pool match against a team from group 1, group 2 and group 3

(a) Seeded group will be based on the club championships standings of season 2025.

4.4. Each age group will have its own ladder, comprising all teams from the PYL League Season.

4.5. All matches in the PYL Boy's Cup will comprise 2 x 40-minute halves, with a maximum half time of 10 mins.

4.6. Any matches which are not able to be completed will be declared a 0-0 draw, with both teams being awarded 1 point.

4.7. At the conclusion of round 3 of the PYL Boy's cup, the two highest ranking teams of each age group will progress to the PYL Cup Final for their respective age.

(a) Should the number of points be equal after the completion of these matches, goal difference will be used to determine the Cup Final participants.

- (i) The Club with the highest goal difference;
- (ii) The Club with the highest goals for;
- (iii) Fair Play Points System in which the number of Yellow and Red Cards in group Matches is considered according to the following deductions:

5.5. Whilst all teams will compete in their own age group competition, all results will be collated in a Club Championship format.

(a) A cumulative table, combining all teams from each club will be maintained to produce the Club Championship Table. This table will add all the following league data to produce a single table representing the total of the below data for each club:

- (i) Games Played
- (ii) Wins
- (iii) Draws
- (iv) Losses
- (v) Goals For
- (vi) Goals Against
- (vii) Points

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, separate Club Championship Tables will be maintained for PYL Division 1 and PYL Division 2.

5.6. At the conclusion of Phase One, Clubs will be split into three divisions based on their position in their respective Club Championships Table described in rule 5.5, as follows:

(a) Clubs ranked positions 1 to 9 in PYL Division 1 will qualify for PYL League A.

(b) Clubs ranked positions 10 to 12 in PYL Division 1, and Clubs ranked 1 to 5 in PYL Division 2 will qualify for PYL League B.

(c) Clubs ranked 6th and below in PYL Division 2 will qualify for PYL League C.

- (d) All clubs will play each other club in their phase two division two times on a predominately home and away basis (after regional travel considerations).
- (e) In the event not all fixtured matches are completed, and if it has an impact on the final standing, NNSWF reserves the right to implement the points per game model.
- (f) The model may be implemented specifically to enable differentiation between a number of clubs or implemented across the whole Club Championship Table.
 - (i) The points per game model will be required to take into account, at NNSW Footballs discretion, the impact of any club who is not fielding all required teams in PYL.

5.7. Clubs will then compete in each age group within their respective PYL League as follows:

(a) PYL League A

- (i) All points, goals and match statistics for clubs moving from PYL Division 1 to PYL League A will remain intact;
